Free Partial Withdrawal (Surrender)

- Free partial withdrawals are allowed subject to limitations.
- Maximum of four (4) free partial withdrawals are allowed in each policy year.
- The minimum amount of withdrawal is USD 2,500.
- The maximum amount of a free partial withdrawal depends on the premium payment term of the policy and whether the withdrawal is taken before or after the premium payment term.

Before the end of premium payment term

The remaining account value after the withdrawal should be at least equal to the total premiums paid till the point of withdrawal

After the end of premium payment term

Premium payment options	Maximum withdrawal (% of account value)	Minimum remaining account value after withdrawal
1 Year	75% of account value	Max (USD 30,000, 2 times SC*)
2 Years	65% of account value	Max (USD 15,000, 2 times SC*)
3 Years	55% of account value	Max (USD 12,000, 2 times SC*)
4 Years	50% of account value	Max (USD 12,000, 2 times SC*)

*SC is the Surrender Charge applicable at the point of withdrawal.

- Partial withdrawals that don't meet the above criteria will be subject to the normal partial surrender rules.
- Example: Assume a client with 3 years pay policy with a target premium of USD 12,000 paid monthly chooses to surrender on the 30th month and the account value at time of surrender is USD 36,977. Month 30 is before the end of the 3 years payment term, therefore the minimum remaining account value after the withdrawal should be at least equal to the total premiums paid so far. 30 monthly premiums have been paid ($30 \times \text{USD } 12,000 / 12 = \text{USD } 30,000$). The maximum allowable withdrawal is ($\text{USD } 36,977 - \text{USD } 30,000 = \text{USD } 6,977$) and the minimum is USD 2,500.
- Example: Assume a client with 4 years pay policy with a target premium of USD 15,000 paid annually chooses to surrender on the 88th month and the account value at time of surrender is USD 70,135. Month 88 is after the end of the 4 years premium payment term therefore the minimum remaining account value after withdrawal should be the higher of USD 12,000 or 2 times the surrender charge (calculated by interpolation between the values in surrender charges table) at month 88 ($2 \times (0.67\% \times \text{USD } 15,000) = \text{USD } 201$). Hence the minimum remaining account value is USD 12,000. As per the above table the maximum allowable withdrawal is ($50\% \times \text{USD } 70,135 = \text{USD } 35,067.50$). The remaining account value after the maximum withdrawal is USD 35,067.50 ($\text{USD } 70,135 - \text{USD } 35,067.50$) which is more than the minimum of USD 12,000. The client can withdraw any amount between the range of USD 2,500 and USD 35,067.50.
- Example: Assume a client with 2 years pay policy with a target premium of USD 20,000 paid annually chooses to surrender on the 34th month, the account value at time of surrender is USD 41,768. Month 34 is after the end of the 2 years premium payment term therefore the minimum remaining account value after withdrawal should be the higher of USD 15,000 or 2 times the surrender charge (calculated by interpolation between the values in surrender charges table) at month 34 ($2 \times (6.67\% \times \text{USD } 20,000) = \text{USD } 2,668$). Hence the minimum remaining account value is USD 15,000. As per the above table the maximum allowable withdrawal is ($65\% \times \text{USD } 41,768 = \text{USD } 27,300$). The remaining account value after the maximum withdrawal is USD 14,619 ($\text{USD } 41,768 - \text{USD } 27,149$) which is less than the minimum of USD 15,000. Hence the remaining account value is set at USD 15,000 and the maximum allowable withdrawal is ($\text{USD } 41,768 - \text{USD } 15,000 = \text{USD } 26,768$). The client can withdraw any amount between the range of USD 2,500 and USD 26,768.

Partial Withdrawal (Surrender)

- 2 partial withdrawals are allowed per policy year
- Maximum withdrawal amount is 80% of the net cash surrender value

Policy Fees

- Management & Expense Charge
- Premium Fee
- Expense recoupment

Surrender Fees

If you surrender your policy before maturity, fees will be applicable.

How to calculate your Surrender fee?

Cash Value at the time of Surrender - Surrender Rate - Premium Recoupment Fees.

Premium paid: USD 35,000; Surrender to occur on the 14th month; Cash value at that time is: USD 38,500; no partial withdrawal occurred

Surrender Rate = Premium paid x Surrender charge

Surrender Rate = 35,000 x 5.66%

Surrender Rate = USD 1,981

Expense Recoupment Period = Number of months remaining on the next policy year.

Since the surrender is happening on the 14th month, it means that only 2 months have passed on the next policy year.

Therefore the remaining is 10 months.

Expense Recoupment Period = 10 months

Premium Recoupment Fee = Expense Recoupment Period x Premium Paid x (Premium Fees / 12)

Premium Recoupment Fee = 10 x 35,000 x (2%/12)

Premium Recoupment Fee = USD 583

Surrender value = 38,500 – 1,981 – 583

Surrender value = USD 35,936
